

Relationship between p-value and observed power for an independent t-test with $n = 100$

